OPERATIONS IN FRISCO CIRCLES VACATING OF RIGHT OF WAY INDICATE BUILDING OF DEPOT

TWO FIRMS ARE MOVING

BRINSON-PATTERSON LUMBER
CO. CONCENTRATING TO EAST

Stansbery Implement House to Move in 40 Days—Something Is Certainly Doing at the Frisco.

Considerable interest is attached to the movements of certain Frisco officials who were in the city last night and this morning and also by the announcement that the Brinson-Patterson Lumber company and the Stansbery Implement company are making preparations to vacate one hundred and fifty feet each, fronting on the railroad right of way.

These movements may mean a depot on the site thus vacated; they may mean a park, and they may only mean that the railroad company intends putting in some more switches or side tracks. All of these things have been talked about, but which of them is intended, if either, is as yet not known to anyone outside the officials.

J. D. Hagler, of the City National bank, who is perhaps more fully informed on the company's plans than any other man in Tulsa, was seen this morning by a World representative and asked what was in the air. He replied that General Manager Gray, Division Superintendent Miller, Mr. Resigie, and others of the Frisco had been in the city and that something was going to be done. He thought matters would shortly be arranged for the building of a depot, but that nothing had been determined on and everything was uncertain. He gave the assurance, however, that in about ten days, there would be something to publish.

SENATOR ALLISON ILL.

Confined to Room—Fears Entertained for His Ultimate Recovery.

Washington, May 8.—Senator Allison of Iowa is reported as being a very sick man. He has been confined to his room in the Portland for several days with a cold and in the senate last Friday Mr. Aldrich, in moving adjournment until Monday, explained that Mr. Allison, who had some important amendments on the railroad bill, would then be present.

It is rumored, however, that the illness is more serious than a cold. It is said that the senator's kidneys are affected. Mr. Allison, the father of the senate in point of service, is 77 years of age, but of vigorous constitution. He has been enjoying good health, and his physical strength has been equal to that of any of his colleagues.

It was stated tonight at his hotel that the senator was much better, and several senators who called upon him today denied that he is in a serious condition. They say his condition has improved, but that it may be a few days before he returns to the senate. No authority can be found for the rumors that Mr. Allison's ailment is Bright's disease, nor is any denial obtainable at his hotel.

LOYAL SMITH FAMILY.

One Ben Z. T. Lets an Ancient Sin
Find Him Out.

Memphis, Tenn., May 8.—Ben Z. T. Smith, a well known Oklahoma ranchman and veteran of Roosevelt Rough Riders, will shortly be brought back to Tennessee to serve a sixteen-year sentence in the penitentiary. Smith was convicted of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Gibson at Chattanooga in 1890, but broke jail and had been at large just long enough to have served his sentence. The man was one of the most notorious criminals ever operating in that part of the state, and it was in resisting arrest for various other crimes ranging from highway robbery to murder that he killed Officer Gibson.

THINGS LOOK VERY MUCH LIKE A FRISCO DEPOT.

Is that depot at last to be built? Things look much like it. W. F. Horrall, manager of the Brinson-Patterson Lumber company, which is located on Boston and Cincinnati, today began concentrating the yard, with the intention of vacating 150 feet to the west. The office which now faces west on Boston, will be moved to Cincinnati and face east. The sheds now occupying the 150 feet mentioned will also be moved east and built twice as high as at present. Stansbery's Implement house will vacate the Frisco right-of-way between Main and Boston within forty days. It looks like a Frisco depot.

While held in jail awaiting the traveling guard of the state's prison, Smith made his escape and was lost sight of until this month, although it now transpires that he was encamped with the rough riders during their stay near Chattanooga after the Spanish-American war. Smith located and married in Oklahoma and is said to have raised an interesting family and to have developed into a good citizen. It is possible that he may be able to gain a new trial by praying the supreme court or at least have his sentence lightened because of army services and recent good conduct.

DOUBTS HIS SINCERITY.

President Not Easily Melted by De-serter's Plea.

Guthrie, Okla., May 8.—Secretary Charles Filson today received from Delegate McGuire the president's decision in the case of Fred Blehm, a young German from Kingfisher county, who deserted from the army after less than three months' service, and for whom clemency had been asked by Oklahoma officials.

On account of the fact that Blehm's case had been reviewed by two military courts, the president refused to pardon him, but did cut his prison sentence in two, making it nine months instead of eighteen. It had been pleaded in Blehm's behalf that his father was old and feeble, and that his wife needed his assistance. A letter from the acting secretary of war, in commenting on this fact, said that under such circumstances a man never should have enlisted, and that his enlistment indicated a desire to relieve himself of family duties, which would not augur well for his faithful performance of them if he were released.

AN APPRECIATIVE SUBSCRIBER

J. W. Epperson, a former citizen of Stone Fort, writes the Chronicle as follows from Tulsa, I. T.: It is with great pleasure I remit my small amount for the Old Reliable. I am always glad to hear from the good people in Southern Illinois, though I have been away many years. I have been in Tulsa eight months and am doing a good business in the building line; am now putting up a bank building costing over $100,000. This is a great country as well as a good city. We have one of the greatest oil and gas fields known. Fine farming country. I will send you Tulsa dailies. Everything is prosperous in the territory; good prospects for crops. If we only get statehood and the Curtis bill through, this will be a paradise for farmers.

CAMPBELL SHOOT A TIE WITH CHAMPION O'BRIEN AT THE MEET

Tulsa Man Makes Good—Second and Last Day of Gun Club Tournament Marked by Many Brilliant Feats of Marksmanship—Mrs. Butler Proves Herself a Wonderful Shot—Story in Detail

The wind was almost a gale from the northwest this morning and blew powder back into the shooters' eyes. The birds when shot from the trap were sent spinning in the teeth of the wind, which made them duck and jump in a most exasperating manner, and a difficult target. The judge's voice of "lost bird" sounded, it seemed, nearly as often as "dead bird."

The first event was a match between L. H. Owens of Cushing, Oklahoma, and T. J. Hartman, of Deer Creek, for a challenge cup held by Owens, and which had been put up by C. T. White of Guthrie, Oklahoma. Hartman deposited $15.00, the winner to take both cup and money. Hartman won, breaking 48 birds out of 50, and Owens 45.

Campbell, the champion of Tulsa, was jubilant, because he had tied O'Brien in the event of the morning. Mr. Campbell insisted on the World making a feature of that part of the morning's work, and that Tulsa would no doubt feel proud of him if it did so, but he begged the reporter not to call attention to the score, all of which the newspaper man promised not to do.

Mrs. Butler faced the traps and high wind this morning like a veteran. She discarded the panama which she wore yesterday and shot bare-headed. The score shows that the wind did not interfere with her work any more than it did with her male competitors. Her shots were watched with a good deal of interest by the others, except her husband, who in order to keep up with his wife evidently had troubles of his own.

Ford and Etchen made each 91. There were five sportsmen who made 87—Faurte, Campbell, Newton, Jordan and O'Brien. Heer, the professional, marked the highest score, making 94. Mackie also made 91, thereby tying Ford and Etchen.

This afternoon will complete the two days' tournament.

The professionals who take part in the tournament do not share in the cash prizes, but their presence adds very materially to the interest of the

LITTLE GIRL SHOT.

Accidentally Killed by Boy Playmate at Muskogee.

Muskogee, I. T., May 8.—Lola Blaylock, the 12-year-old daughter of J. G. Blaylock of this city, was instantly killed here yesterday afternoon by Tom Taylor, 8 years old. The shooting was accidental. The children were playing marshall and the little girl handed a shotgun to the boy, telling him he was the officer. The boy leveled the gun at the little girl and it was accidentally discharged. The entire charge of shot struck the child in the forehead, blowing the entire top of her head off.

J. G. Blaylock, father of the dead child, made the race for the nomination as city marshal on the Democratic ticket here this spring.

The parents of both children are almost prostrated as a result of the accident.

RESOLUTION CONDEMNING THE WATER CO. FAILED TO PASS.

Packing Co. Permitted to Straighten Line of Building—Carnegie Library Is Left to the People.

All of the Aldermen, excepting Mathewson, were present at the meeting of the city council last night. Mayor Mitchell presided. After roll call and the reading of the minutes of last meeting Assessor Essley read his report which was as follows:

List of property in the city of Tulsa, I. T.

Personal property	$ 964,688.25
Real estate	3,763,946.00

Total valuation	$4,728,634.25
Personal lists	$1,333.00
Realty lists	2,821.00

Total number lists $4,154.00

Assessor's fees at 25 per cent $1,038.50

The report was referred to the finance committee.

Rumley reported on the Carnegie Library, that he had been in correspondence with several cities and that he found some difference of opinion regarding such institutions, as was natural. He was in favor of allowing the people to express themselves on the subject. He was not in favor of a $15,000 library, he wanted a $40,000 one, or at least a $25,000 one. Statehood would soon come and he asked that the matter be delayed, and when an opportunity arose tack it on to some other and let it go by the vote of the people. Report was accepted and Mr. Rumley's suggestion was adopted.

Hawley reported on a public toilet, that the bids for one were now in the recorder's hands. The bids were read. W. M. Fewel objected to the use of the old jail for public toilet purposes, and said it was private property, that he represented the owners and would get out an injunction to stop it if necessary. The matter was referred to the city attorney.

Bids from banks on the city's funds were then read. The First National Bank was the highest bidder and offered 4 1-3 per cent interest on daily balances. On motion of Rumley the unanimous vote of the council gave the funds to the First National.

Cupp, for the pauper burial committee, reported in favor of the Mayo Furniture company.

Randolph reported on Dr. Likes' claim against the city, that the Doctor had not conferred with the committee, and not having figures to go upon, asked that more time be extended.
